

Flint Circuit Drug Task Force

The Flint Circuit Drug Task Force is a specialized drug suppression unit consisting of law enforcement officers from seven Henry County agencies with central command and under the authority of a managerial board consisting of both elected and appointed law enforcement executives.

The participating Henry County agencies are the District Attorney's office, the Solicitors office, the Sheriff's Office, the County Police Department, the Hampton Police Department, the Locust Grove Police Department, and the McDonough Police Department.

These seven agencies have combined their resources and intelligence and through a creative effort this Joint Task Force will have authority across all jurisdictional boundaries within Henry County.

The primary goal of this new Joint Task Force is to make it extremely difficult for drug dealers to sell, use or transport illegal drugs anywhere in Henry County.
